" I can't recommend GummySearch enough. Incredibly powerful for customer research on Reddit / pain points and so much more.

- Mike

" You would be a fool to pass up on this. Gummy Search has become my market research weapon of choice.

- Michelle

" GummySearch is one of the greatest products I have discovered in the last two months. This is awesome work.

- Chris

" Can I write you a testimonial or something? Just had a user sign up for a $79/m trial on MSB after I reached out to them through Gummy

- Ryan

" I set up the account today, so this is like immediate results! I just started the trial and I think I couldn't have had a better experience

- Justyna

" I just came across your service a few days ago externally and fell in love with it. I started telling a few friends about it, that's how hyped I've been about this product.

- Jay

FAQs

This looks cool, but can't I do the same on Reddit?

Reddit is for discovering new content. GummySearch is built specifically for those that seek insights from the millions of daily conversations happening on Reddit.

Do I need a Reddit account to use GummySearch?

No. You can browse public posts & comments without a Reddit account. However, an account is recommended to contribute to any conversations you find via GummySearch.

I'm not sure if my target audience is on Reddit. How do I find out?

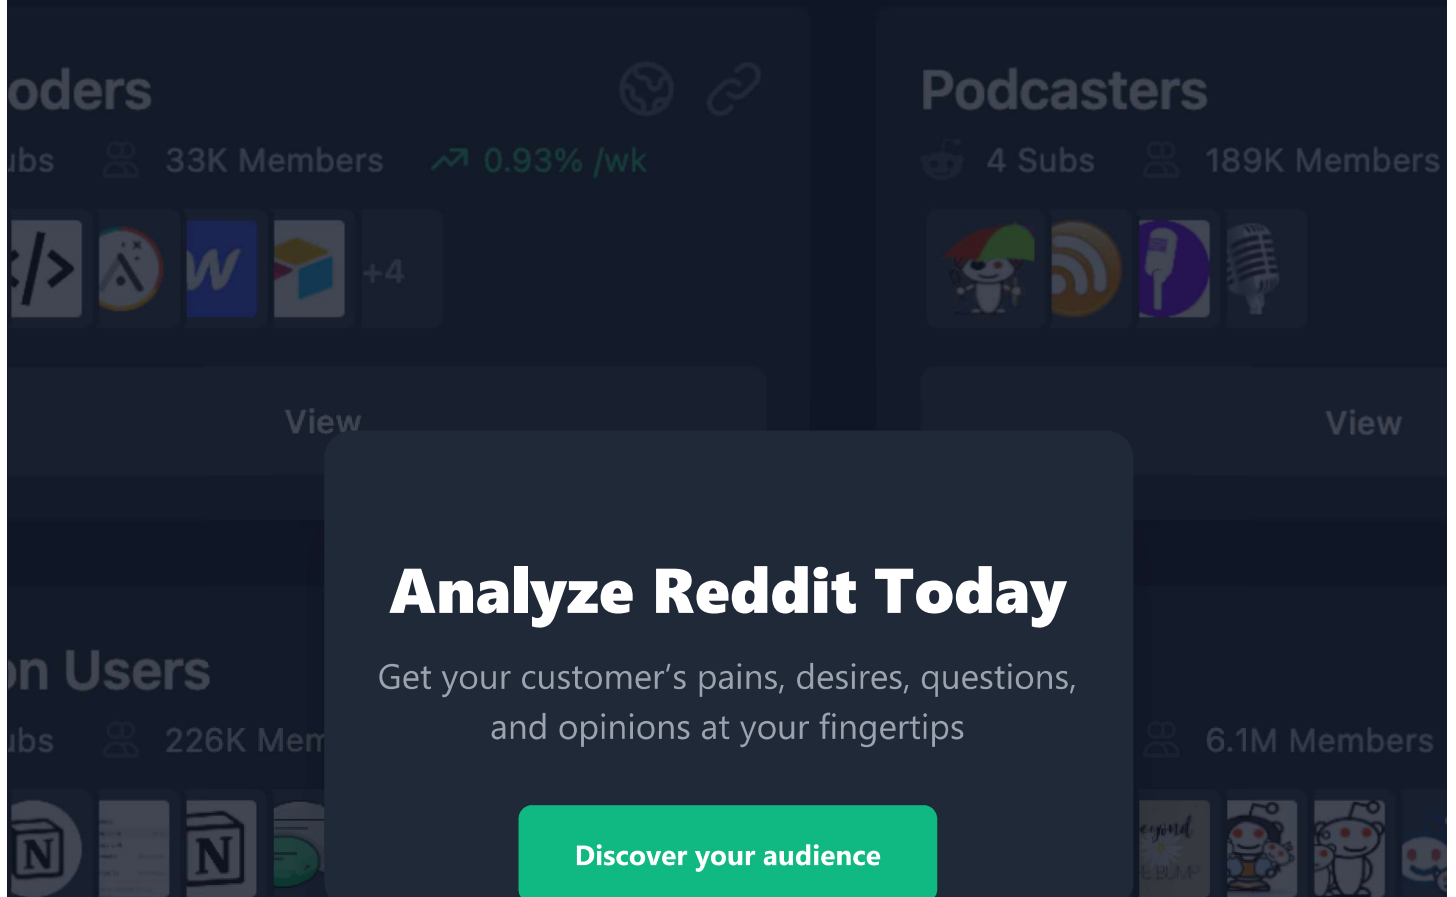

You'll be able to figure that out in a matter of minutes during onboarding. If you still aren't able to find any, reach out and you will get help.

I'm busy, does this tool take a long time to pick up?

GummySearch was built for busy startup founders like you, to save you time and get you results quickly. Check it out and you'll see for yourself.

I hear Redditors are strict. Will I get downvoted or banned?

They are nicer than the rumors make them out to be. Add more to the community than you take, and you'll be warmly welcomed. We'll guide you through it!
